Meet Our Tennis Professionals

Roy Coopersmith is a New York native but coached and taught on the mainline in Philadelphia. He has a wealth of experience coaching all ages and levels of players, including pros and juniors in America, Spain, Croatia, India, Vietnam, Philippines, and Dubai. He coached many WTA, ATP and ITF players such as Jelena Jankovic, Jamea Jackson, Tommy Shimada and Philipp Kohlschreiber. Roy was ranked #1 in Middle States 35's and played pro tennis and highest level German league tennis while living in Europe. He has been certified USPTA Elite Pro, PTR Pro and as a WTA Sony Ericsson tour coach, all while taking classes and seminars to hone his coaching skills. He is well-versed in the QuickStart Junior Tennis Program for 5-12-year olds. Roy is very excited to bring his decades of knowledge and skill to Colonial!

Maja Coopersmith hails from Split, Croatia. She grew up on the red clay and as a junior was one of the best in world. She turned pro at 15 and by 17 was ranked WTA 142, beating several top 10 players. Maja represented her country many times in the Federation Cup and competed in all four slams: Australian Open, French Open, Wimbledon, and the US Open. She has beaten players such as Anke Huber, Barbara Schett, Daniela Hantuchova, and Sandrine Testud. Maja is PTR certified and has coached players of all ages and levels since 1999. She loves coaching young and adult-level beginners and ladies' teams. Maja enjoys running fun, well-paced drills and looks forward to passing on her seasoned knowledge and expertise to members!
